Get lost in the moment!

True to ILVE's pedigree in ultimate performance cookers, the NEW V-Line series acts as the starting point to the latest range of ILVE's famous freestanding cookers. ILVE's V-Line Series features cast aluminium burners offering instantaneous heat that lets you simmer at low temperatures or instantly increase to searing hot. Also as part of the new V-Series range ILVE's freestanding ovens incorporate our new oven cavity. Our new cavity is larger than before and our new oven cavity incorporates a new rear oven wall featuring 2 air flow gills designed to spread heat more evenly and efficiently around the oven cavity improving the cooking result. and increased internal illumination and black enamel cavity. Our full piece glass inner door is easy to clean and the internal accessories are easy to remove.

Available in 90cm with a matt graphite enamel body the V-Line by ILVE is an easy choice to make.
