The ultimate outdoor kitchen

Signature® series. Full on, mate!

This is where we took our idea of a great barbecue, and made it bigger. A lot bigger!

This is BeefEater's Outdoor Kitchen Centre. You might want to hold the brochure a little further back, just to take it all in. Amazing, isn't it?

Ahead of its time, this exceptional entertainer is the work of two iconic Australian companies. BeefEater, in barbecues and St. George Appliances, for fine kitchen appliances. It's pure Aussie ingenuity at work.

We've got burners, cabinets, storage, drawers, fridges, sinks and more!

Up here in ultimate outdoor kitchen land is where our "build your own" philosophy really comes into its own. There's so much to play with. Fancy a four burner module? Maybe a two burner will do.

Need somewhere to house a fridge? Got that. How about space for a wine chiller? Or a home entertainment system? Got it. Left or right hand opening doors? Got that too.

The solid, integrated, modular construction is so quick and easy to install... which means you'll be cooking in no time.

You can start small.

Then throw in the kitchen sink.

Add a bar fridge, or two.

Perhaps a few extra drawers here, a cabinet there.

*Bench tops available may vary from the one shown.

Only available with 2 and 4 burner barbecues.
