

Our large single bowl takes the beautiful proportions of the Titan sink and scales it up to family size. While architect Mies van der Rohe famously remarked ‘less is more’ we respectfully disagree. Of course, the reference was to simplicity of form, not size. With a large Titan sink, you get all the simplicity and all the room to move.

Large single bowl

This version is large enough for a family with several miniature people or teenagers. The large deep bowl has around the same capacity as most two-bowl sinks, so it's perfect for soaking large pots and frying pans. And for rinsing then transferring to the dishwasher. Like our medium-size sink, it marries happily with our drainer insert.
